YOUR CAPTIVE INSURANCE SOLUTION

You have gone through the analysis – feasibility, business drivers and tax implications and have decided a single member 831(b) captive insurance company is a great solution for your organization. Now you need to assemble the professional team to work through the licensing maze, navigate the unique statutory accounting principles, and address the regulatory requirements and tax implications. Together J. Lash & Company and Maloney + Novotny LLC can quickly get your organization's certificate of authority and help you meet the ongoing regulatory audit requirements. We will make sure your organization maximizes the tax and premium savings.

J. LASH & COMPANY specializes in:

- Captive formation
- Obtaining regulatory approvals for the captive
- Claims, litigation and risk management
- Assisting the captive with regulatory compliance

MALONEY + NOVOTNY LLC specializes in:

- Statutory and GAAP financial statement audits
- Assistance with statutory statement filings
- Preparation of federal, state and local tax returns

With over 50 years of combined insurance industry experience we can make setting up and maintaining a captive insurance company a great business decision. We guarantee you will receive personalized service and pay reasonable fees and we will work efficiently with your captive manager. You will wonder why you did not make this decision sooner.
