Leading Regional CPA firm Maloney + Novotny Celebrates 80th Anniversary

Contact: Diane Gallagher, Director of Marketing, Maloney + Novotny (O) 216/344-5240

CLEVELAND, OH {March, 2010} – This year marks the 80th anniversary of Maloney + Novotny, named nationally as one of the 100 Best Accounting Firms to Work For by Accounting Today Magazine and one of North Coast 99's best places to work. The anniversary will be celebrated at several events hosted by Maloney + Novotny throughout the year. The firm is headquartered in Cleveland and has also has large offices in Canton and Elyria.

Founded in 1930 by Herb Hausser, and later joined with Bill Taylor's firm, the firm has built its reputation on core values including creative solutions, outstanding client service and the belief in maintaining the highest quality and ethics in the accounting profession. In 2008 the firm changed its name from Hausser + Taylor LLC to Maloney + Novotny LLC. Today, the firm has 18 shareholders and more than 100 service personnel.

"The firm's founders and prior leaders heavily influenced Maloney + Novotny's culture and commitment to the business community," reflects Matthew J. Maloney, Managing Shareholder at Maloney + Novotny. "I believe the firm has thrived over the years, in part, because of those core values and entrepreneurial culture that run so deeply through the firm and its people," said Maloney.

Maloney said the firm has enjoyed a long history of attracting and retaining exceptional clients. Likewise, Maloney + Novotny has attracted and retained talented shareholders and employees. With one of the lowest staff turnover rates in the accounting profession, Maloney explains that, "The firm offers a great environment for bright and creative people to excel."

The entire team at Maloney + Novotny is proud of the firm's legacy and looks forward to serving clients for many more years into the future.
